Trinity METHODIST CHURCH
Worship the King, Grow the Kingdom

This Sunday

Christ the King Sunday

This Sunday, as we celebrate Christ the King, we reflect on what it really means to proclaim Jesus as Lord of our lives. What kind of King do we follow, and how does his example challenge the way we understand power, love and our responsibility towards others?

As we come to the end of the Church year and prepare to enter Advent, we are invited to consider how our faith shapes the way we live, the people we welcome and the love we put into practice.

We look forward to worshipping with you this Sunday!

If you're planning to join us this week, these are the preachers and services you can look forward to:

News From the Office

Brett Mordaunt, our managing pastor, will be stepping down from his role as Managing Pastor and Lay Pastor at the end of the year. He will return to teaching.

We are deeply grateful for Brett's leadership and service. Please join us in praying for Brett and his family as they prepare for this next chapter, as well as for Trinity as we walk through this transition together.

From this Sunday there will be a table outside our services where you can write notes or draw pictures for Brett, or you can bring a note or photos from home. Please share with him your stories of what he meant to you. We will be putting all the notes together in a big box, and present it to him at his farewell.

You are invited to join us as we celebrate Brett and his work.

Community

We are praying for...

...a new season of leadership

We move beyond the local government elections, and a new political landscape takes shape. We pray for wisdom, integrity and a genuine commitment to serving our communities. As mayors, councillors and coalition partners take up their responsibilities, may they put people before politics and personal gain. We pray for new leaders committed to service delivery, not self-service, and for collaboration that brings meaningful change to our communities.

This week, let us pray for:

- New leadership: That mayors and councillors will lead with wisdom, humility, integrity and a commitment to serving all people.
- Coalitions: That political parties will find common ground and put community interests above party politics.
- Service delivery: That urgent needs such as water, electricity, sanitation, housing and infrastructure receive the attention they deserve.

- Accountability: That corruption and abuse of power will be challenged, and transparency and good governance upheld.
- That we will remain hopeful and engaged, that the needs of the most vulnerable will not be overlooked, and a renewed commitment to the common good.

We hold in our hearts those who are grieving the loss of...

Service: To be confirmed

May you find rest and peace in God's presence.

Has Your Scheduled Payment Lapsed?

Many people give to the life and ministry of Trinity through monthly stop-orders, debit orders, or scheduled payments. Have you checked if yours is still active? Sometimes a scheduled payment ends, and needs to be renewed.

You can find Trinity's giving page on our website, with our bank details and ways to give.

WA Diaries

Start planning 2027!

Helen Dittberner is selling 2027 WA Diaries before and after our Sunday services. They can also be bought from Nomphelo in her office during the week. They cost R50 each. All monies raised go to Epworth Children's Home.

Ways to Serve

Join the Prison Ministry

Your Chance to Join the Prison Ministry
Do you have a gift for disciple-making through teaching? And do you have a passion for working among the marginalised people of our society?

If so, you may be just the person we're looking for to join our Missing Jesus? Finding the Shepherd We Lost prison ministry.

Fay and Ling Leong, who have been leading the team visiting the maximum-security section at Leeuwkop Prison every Thursday, would like to step down from this ministry in the near future. We are therefore looking for new members to join the team, initially shadowing Fay and Ling, with a view to eventually taking over the leadership of the team and the main teaching responsibility.
This is a wonderful opportunity to be used by God during a potentially life changing season in the lives of the prisoners.

If you are interested, please contact Ling or Fay on 082 605 4984 or ling.leong53@gmail.com

Community Service Day

Ncedenani Care-Givers Appreciation Lunch
What a special treat awaited at Trinity for the invited Care-Givers. They attend to the needs of about 200 housebound elderly people in Soweto. This time it was their turn to be attended to.

A scrumptious lunch; an inspiring prayer and talk by Rev. Mabaso and two of the team and beautiful gifts received too.

Community Service Day

These last few weeks we have shared the stories of the Community Service Day, and this week we celebrate the people who made it all possible.

For your passion, your care, your organising, and your presence, you made this day a success.

We had a Ncedenani care-givers lunch, a men's breakfast for the soup kitchen, a hike with Ikageng, food packing for Rise Against Hunger, fellowship at Rose Village, and box filling and decorating for the Zandspruit community.

Today we celebrate the people of the Community Service Day. Thank you for serving God and our community this way!

The Heart of Trinity

Nomphelo, who you can normally find in our office reception, recently preached at our on-trial service at the Kopanang Service.

We celebrate her progress with her!
