

Living What We've Heard

Over the past five weeks, we've explored how God guides us – through Scripture, prayer, our hearts, and the circumstances of our lives. But discernment isn't simply about knowing God's will; eventually, we have to take the next faithful step.

This Sunday, as we conclude the series "Embracing God's Will", we'll explore what it means to move from listening to living. We may not always have certainty or a detailed map, but we can trust that God is with us as we take the next step.

Perhaps discerning God's will isn't about finding a perfect blueprint for our lives, but about walking closely enough with Christ to become the people God created us to be – offering our own song, message, and acts of love to the world.

Join us this Sunday as we discover what it means to live what we've heard.

We are praying for...

This week is the last Sunday of the month. This means that our offering prayer moment will be dedicated to the Prayer & Spirituality portfolio.

Our Heavenly Father GOD ALMIGHTY, As we approach your Throne this last Sunday of August, we come before You with hearts full of thankfulness. We lift up our Prayer and Spirituality Portfolio, and we thank You for every person who serves on it. Thank You for their generous hearts and their willingness to stand in the gap for others. Thank You for the quiet hours they spend in prayer, lifting up the heavy burdens, the unspoken needs, and the joys of our community.

Thank you for the profound gift of the Tapestry of Grace Retreat and the space it provided to rest, reflect, and renew our spirits. Please accept our offering as a token of our deep appreciation for your time, guidance, and the grace of this shared journey. Heavenly Father, Thank you for the quiet moments, the renewed spirits, and the fellowship we shared during our time on the retreat.

As we return to our daily lives, we bring these financial gifts and tithes to you as an act of worship. You have refreshed our hearts and provided for our every need. Please bless these offerings, and use them to sustain the mission of this church and to bring your hope and love to our local community. Help us carry the peace we found on the mountain back into the valleys of our everyday routines. We surrender ourselves, in perfect submission and in Jesus Christ name, we pray. Amen.

We're praying for...

Table Talk Farina

We recently held our 4th annual evening Table Talk at Farina across the road from Trinity. The topic for this year was “What Your Dreams May Be Saying – A Non-Religious Introduction to Dream Interpretation” – something that clearly appealed to a lot of people given that we had to start adding people to a waiting list with about a week to go!

Those who attended enjoyed an evening of delicious pizza, lively discussion and learning more about dream interpretation. John spoke about the importance of paying attention to our dreams, shared a non-religious guide to exploring their possible meaning and ended with an encouragement to also explore and find meaning in life. Questions posed to John at the end of the evening certainly revealed the broadness of the topic and the fact that the talk had given people a lot to think about.

It has been interesting and encouraging to hear from some people since the evening that they have started to remember and think about their dreams more – hopefully an important step for many to experience personal growth and healing where needed.

As always, we are grateful to Farina for hosting us and to all involved in contributing towards another successful Farina event – thank you!
